

The affiant, W.A.Taylor, says that he believes and has reasonable grounds to believe that Earl Jenkins, ^{and Will Warner} have committed a public offense and that said offense consisted of giving a check on a bank for the payment of money without having any money in the said bank to pay same and knowing at the time of giving it that he had no money with which to pay it.

W.A. Taylor

Subscribed and sworn to before me by W.A.Taylor, Jan. 7, 1920.

R.L. Black
Examiner Mercer County, Ky.