

Gaither & Vanarsdall,
Attorneys at Law,
Harrodsburg, Ky.

Prompt attention given to commercial and all other business placed in our hands.

Joseph Thuttrell, having been brought before M.
Harris, Justice of the Peace for Mercer County, for an examination of the charge of assault on Nestor Thuttrell, and being allowed to give bail for his appearance during the examination of the charge, now we, Joseph Thuttrell principal and Ed McHatridge surety do undertake that said Joseph Thuttrell will appear in said examining court at said Court house, in Harrodsburg, Ky. on Monday, Sept 22, 1890, and will render himself amenable to all orders of said court in the examination of the charge; and if ^{the said Joseph Thuttrell} he fail to perform either of said conditions, we will pay to the Community of Kentucky Two Hundred Dollars. Witness our hands this 17th of Sept., 1890.

Joseph Thuttrell
