

Mercer County Court, June Term, June, 13th, 1914.

At a meeting of the County Court of Mercer County, Ky

On Saturday, June, 13th, 1914, D. Lee Currkey, Judge.

It appearing to the satisfaction of the Court that Dovie Strange, an infant born 5th day of July 1909, and now about 5 years of age, is destitute and dependent upon charity for her support, and that her mother, is unable to support her and her father unknown, it is therefore ordered that the said Dovie Strange be and is by the Court surrendered and committed to the Kentucky Children's Home Society at Louisville, Ky. And it is further by the Court that the said Society may, if it so desires, obtain for said infant legal adoption by such person or persons as may be chosen by the said Society or its authorized agents.

Witness my hand as Judge of the Mercer County Court, this June, 13th, 1914.

D. Lee Currkey
Judge of the Mercer County Court.
