Petition

Sam Scott, John Morgan

Defendant

Plaintiff, First National Bank of Harrodsburg, Kentucky, states that it is now and has been for many years past, a banking corporation organized and doing business under and by virtue of the laws of Kentucky and the United States relating to Banking and at the present time it has its principal place of business in the city of Harrodsburg, Kentucky .

It states that the defendants, Sam Scott and John Morgan by a writing dated, September 21st., 1921 which they executed and delivered to this plaintiff, copy of which is filed herewith as part hereof, marked "Exhibit A" promised to pay to plaintiff the sum of $100.00 four months after date with interest on same from date until paid.

Plaintiff states that said note is past due and that of $36.55 same is subject to a credit of $66.12 leaving a balance due thereon with interest from January 21st., 1922.

Wherefore , etc.

Plaintiff says that this is an action for money being a contract to pay money; that said claim is just; that it
