

stood by the defendant; that it was an interstate shipment.

intended for re-sale on the Cincinnati market and was so known and under-difference in said market price which was $30.60; that said shipment was and by reason of the delay in transporting said shipment the Piff lost the of the 23rd, and said shipment contained 510 dozen of first class eggs, that the market of the 24th was six cents per dozen lower than the market for the market of the 23rd, and it was sold on the market of the 24th; ment of eggs that it was not delivered in Cincinnati Ohio until too late connecting lines and carriers so delayed the transportation of said ship-time for the market of the 23rd of Feb'y 1912, but the defendant and its and without delay, it would have been delivered in Cincinnati Ohio in and could of; that if said shipment had been transported within a reasonable time the possession of Piff and Piff can not file the original or a copy there-the original bill lading is in the possession of the defendant and not in the same to B. A. Winkler & Co, without delay, and within a reasonable time; ing lines and carriers to the City of Cincinnati Ohio and there to deliver to transport said shipment of eggs, by and through the aid of its connect-it a bill lading covering said shipment and by said bill lading it agreed his; that at that time and place the defendant executed and delivered to eggs which were for transportation to Cincinnati, in the State of O-ered to the defendant at Harrodsburg, in Mercer County, Ky, IV cases of ing its right to hold said bill lading herein says, that of Feb'y 20, 1912 he reliv-

Plaintiff consents for statement of facts, and without waiv-

W.N. Brown, Jr

-v- Statement

Southern Ry Co in Ky

Filed April 17/1912

Attest

Defendant.

-v- Statement.

W. N. Brown, Jr.,

Plaintiff.

Police Court, Harrodsburg.

C. F. Rankin, Atty.