Jones-Wade

Wedding
The marriage of Miss Virginia Jones and Mr. Vance Wade was solemnized at 4:30 Saturday afternoon in the presence of members of the two immediate families. Rev. T. Hassell Bowen was the officiating minister. The wedding was at the home of the bride's uncle, Mr. Lloyd H. Jones, on the Louisville road, near this city. It was the bride's desire to be married at the old homestead where her grandparents had lived. There were no attendants, the wedding being informal and Mr. and Mrs. Wade leaving shortly after the ceremony for a brief trip.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Jones, Cane Run avenue, and is a most attractive young girl. After her graduation from the Harrodsburg high school she entered Centre College, Danville, from which she was graduated last June. Mr. Wade, son of Mrs. Susie Wade, is a splendid and popular young business man. He is a graduate of the high school in this city. Both are members of well known families. They are now at home to their many friends at an apartment at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Phil Board, Greenville street.
