

Mercer Quarterly Court-

Robert Gray-

Plff-

Vs- Petition-

Roy Roney-

Dft-

The plaintiff, Robert Gray, states that the defendant, Roy Roney, has in his possession a tan seated saddle of the value $10.00 and a rain coat of the value of $10.00 and a one man's saw of the value of $2.00 all of which are the property of this plaintiff and to which he is entitled to the immediate possession; that the possession of said articles by defendant is wrongful; that they were not taken for a tax or a fine against this plaintiff or under an order or judgment of a court against him nor under an attachment, distress warrant or fee bill against his property-

Wherefore plaintiff prays for a judgment against the defendant for said saddle, rain coat and saw or for the above claimed value of said articles and for all the costs of this action- He prays for all relief to which he is or may appear to be entitled-
