

facts stated in Deft's answer, as to the loss of said money in said ~~xx~~ poker game, he took up Deft's check or had it assigned or delivered to him. He denies that the statements in the answer are facts. He denies that he participated in any poker game wherein the ~~Y~~ Deft lost said money. He denies that he guaranteed payment by the Deft in any game.
He denies that in compliance with any guarantee he paid off to those engaged in the game or operating it, the sum of $119. He denies that he took up Deft's check of $119. , or that the same was assigned or delivered to him.

Replying to paragraph 4, Plff says that at the special instance and request of the Deft, he paid for him certain obligations amounting to $119. that he was owing to divers persons in Danville, Ky and that the Deft thereupon executed to his Plff his note for said amount; that by payments he reduced the said amount to the amount of the note sued on, and then renewed said note by executing the note sued on, and that all payments made to the Plff were credited upon the original note and no part of same included on the note sued on.
He denies that the $16. is a credit on said note. He denies that any money paid to the Plff by the Deft was paid as payments on any debt due to him for money lost in a game of poker, in which this Plff participated. He denies that it was for money furnished to him while any gaming was in progress, or at the time that any game was in progress.
He denies that it was or is for any money loaned or furnished to the Deft for the purpose of using in a game of poker. He denies that said money was used for any such purpose.

For reply to paragraph 5, Plff denies that in Danville, or any place prior to the execution or delivery of the note sued on or at any time, the Plff invited or persuaded this Deft to go into a a game or gambling house, or place wherein cards were played for money, or where money was wagered, or bet, or won or lost, on a card game of any kind. He denies that while in said room or at or on the time of the invitation or any invitation or persuasion of the Plff, Deft engaged in
