

The affiant, Lillie B. Graham, states that one William .
Lear is unlawfully holding certain household articles belonging to her to-wit: ^{of the value of $26.50} 1 iron bed and mattress, 1 Stand table, 1 washstand--glasses and dishes--1 bowl and pitcher, 1 featherbed and 2 pillows and bolster. ^{all of the value of $15.00}

That she has demanded said articles of William Lear but said Lear has refused and still refuses to give said articles up to her and that she is the rightful owner.

Lillie Graham

Subscribed and sworn to before this 11th day of September 1925.

Ray E. Evans
Ex. M. C. Court.