

Mercer Quarterly Court.

Cogar Grain And Coal Company,

Plaintiff,

-vs-

Statement.

M. S. King

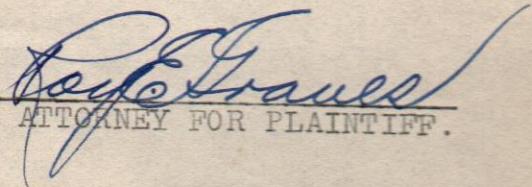

Defendant.

Plaintiff, Cogar Grain & Coal Company, states that it is a corporation, organized under and existing by virtue of the laws of the State of Kentucky and as such has the power to contract and be contracted with; to sue and be sued and was so empowered at all times herein mentioned.

Plaintiff says that the defendant, M. S. King, is indebted to it in the sum of $ 38.42 with interest from January 18th 1924.

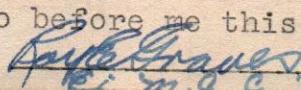

It says that this is an action for the recovery of money due upon a contract; that the defendant has no property in this State subject to execution, or not enough thereof to satisfy the plaintiff's demand, and the collection of the demand will be endangered by delay in obtaining judgment or a return of no property found.

WHEREFORE, plaintiff prays judgment against the defendant in the sum of $ 38.42 with interest thereon at 6% from January 18th 1924 until paid; for a general order of attachment <sup>against</sup> defendant's property; for its cost herein and all further and proper relief it may be entitled to.

John E. Graves
ATTORNEY FOR PLAINTIFF.

The affiant states that the allegations in the foregoing petition are true to the best of his knowledge and belief.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this October 1925.
