

that part of it.

20-^u- What became of the covering that was on the tobacco?

After it was unloaded, what did you do with the covering?

Ans I think we laid it out on the ware house floor while we unloaded the tobacco.

21-^u- Then what was done with it?

Ans We put it back on the wagon.

22-q- Did you put anything else on the wagon?

Ans Yes, the sticks that the tobacco was on.

23-q- Was there any contract or agreement about the delivery of these sticks and the coverings back to him?

Ans No sir, none at all.

24-^u- What was done with the stuff that was brought back on the wagon?

Ans- When I went home I pulled the wagon in the barn - drove in with the things in it- I don't remember exactly whether I put the sticks out or my father - we wanted to use the wagon and we unloaded the sticks and tarpaulin and carpets.

25-^u- Whose barn was that?

Ans My father's

26-^u- Did you see Mr Wilham after that?

Ans Yes.

27-^u- Did you have any talk with him about the things?

Ans I met him one day and he says- Bid never has brought that tarpaulin and carpet and sticks back, and sometime when you are passing would you mind laying the sticks on your wagon and lay them down there in the school house yard ~~just~~ my corner and I will get ~~them~~. I told him I would and I did- he never askedme to bring the tarpaulin and carpet.

28-^u- Where were they at that time?
