

the wagon.

36-Q- What was its value?

Ans I couldn't say as to the value of it. I should think at that time, or even now, $5.00 would have been an awful price for it.

37-Q- Where are you living now- where are you working?

Ans I am now at Akron, Ohio

38-Q- Are you leaving for that point?

Ans Yes, I am leaving to-day.

39-Q- Does MrxWilham know you are going?

Ans Yes, Mr Wilham heard me say the other morning that I was only going to stay a day or two- that I had to be back in Akron Monday morning - if I don't get back by Monday morning I lose my job. (Objected to)

40-Q- Did he in the last year or at any time ever make any complaint to you about the tarpaulin?

Ans I don't think he has mentioned into me since I have been back from the army-- he may have- I don't remember. My brother mentioned it to me- he said Mr Wilham asked him while I was gone about it - but I don't think he has mentioned it to me.

41-Q- You haven't the tarpaulin?

Ans No sir.

42-Q- And never used ~~it~~? it , had nothing to do with it?

Ans I had never seen the tarpaulin- that is to recognize it. I don't know his from my father's or Mr Moore's-- they are all about the same class- pretty well torn up.

43-Q- You will not be here on next Monday?

Ans No sir.
