

Ans I don't know.

54-Q- Was it 40 feet long?

Ans I don't think it was that long.

55-Q- What is your best judgment as to the length of it?

Ans It would be a rough guess with me, I should think the rick would be about 25 or 30 feet long; as well as I remember the tarpaulin didn't cover it - there was a portion of it uncovered, as I remember.

56-Q- Do you know how long it had been used?

Ans No sir.

57-Q- What in your judgment was the reasonable value of the tarpaulin at the time?

Ans The condition it was in, it seems to me that $5.00 would have been an enormous price for it.

58-Q- What was the value of the carpets?

Ans The value of the carpets didn't amount to much- I suppose a couple of dollars.

59-Q- What was the value of the rugs?

Ans He didn't have any rugs- the rugs belonged to me

60-Q- How long has it been since Mr Wilham named it to you the last time about returning it.

Ans- As I said before, I don't remember of him naming it to me since I come back from the Army.

61-Q- When did you get back from the Army?

Ans April 14th, last year .

62-Q- But you are not certain about that?

Ans I am not certain about it, no sir, because my brother said something to me about Mr Wilham asking about it while I was gone.
