

Mercer Quarterly Court

Walter Green

Plaintiff

vs--- Affidavit

Jim Hart

Defendant

The defendant , Jim Hart says that he is not ready for trial in the above case; he says that heretofore on the 16th. day of November, A.D.1929, he duly applied to and had issued to him, by the Judge of the Mercer Quarterly Court, a subpoena for the witnesses, Mrs. Turner Leonard, Vernon Shewmaker, Wm. Lawson, Mrs. William Lawson, Berry Lawson, Jim Renfro and John Trisler; he says that the said subpoena was duly executed by the Sheriff, T.C.Coleman, acting thru his deputy sheriff John S.Buster and that the said officer made his return on the said subpoena as follows; "Executed by summoning the within named, Vernon Shewmaker, William Lawson, and Jim Renfro, the other witnesses not found" ; he says that he is informed that Jim Renfro is at this time and for three weeks last past been sick and confined to his home and is unable to attend this trial, as he is informed; he says that the said Jim Renfro is a material witness in his behalf and that the full force and effect of his testimony can not be had without the said Jim Renfro being present in person and testifying; he says that it is true and he beleives the said Jim Renfro will so state; that he operates a truck and does hauling for various persons; that the said Jim Hart imployed him to move his household furnishings from a house owned by Matt Dean to the property that is reputed to belong to Walter Green and his wife; that