

he did move the said household furnishings as above set out and that the said Renfro carried and assisted the said Hart in carrying his household furnisture into the said house reputed to be owned by the Greens; that he carrried some furnishings into practically every room in the said house and had the oppurtunity to notice the state of repair of the said house and that he did notice the state of repair of the said house; that the said Renfro noticed the said state of repair of the outbuilding on the said premises; and the the said Renfro sold Milk to the said Hart and delivered the same to the house occupied by Hart and was in the said house on numerous occasions and on such occasions he notice that portion of the house that he was in ; that he sold and delivered the said milk to Hart during ~~xxxx~~ all o of the time that Hart occupied the said premises; that the said premises were in as good condition at the time when Hart left the said premises as when the said Hart moved there, ordinary wear, tear and the act of god and the elements excepted, That the said Hart planted and tended a garded on the said premises ; that the said garden spot was practically an acre and that various garden stuff was planted and raised therein; and that Hart did not get to use any, on practically none, of the said garden stuff ; that Hart had a good garden and that Walter Green did use the said garden stuff and that the value thereof was reasonably worth $30.00; ~~xxxxxxx~~

The affiant says that it is true and that ~~he believes~~ beleives that the witness Mrs. Turner Leonard will so state, that she moved to the said property occupied by Hart about the same time that Hart moved there and that she occupied the up stairs rooms thereof and was frequently in the downstairs rooms of the said house; that she knows that the said premises