

Mercer Quarterly Court

Walter Green

Plaintiff

vs. Affadivit

Jim Hart

Defendant

The affiant Jim Hart says that he is not ready for trial in the above case by reason of the fact that several of his material witnesses are absent and can not be procured today; He says that it is true and he beleives the witness Mrs. Turner Leonard will state that she lived in the upstairs rooms of the home of Jim Hart while he lived in the house belonging to Walter Green; that she lived there during most of the time that Jim Hart Occupied the said house that the said Jim Hart took good care of the said house and that there was no damage to the said house except ordianry wear and tear; that Jim Hart had a garden on the said premises that was reasonably worth $30.00 and that the said Hart received no garden products out of the said garden; that the garden contained one acre and all of the said garden was planted in garden stuff, corn, tomaboes, potatoes etc; that the said products were growing nicely and that there was enough gardun stuff to support two or three ordinary famalies; that she made a careful survey of the premises when she went there andwhen she left and that there was no damage done by the said Hart or any one under his control and there was no damage except ordinary wear and tear; affiant says that he beleives that the witnesses William Lawson, Mrs. William Lawson, and Berry Lawson will state substantially the above statemnts except that they did not live in the said house.
