

The Commonwealth of Kentucky,Mercer County or Quarterly Court COURT

The affiant, Hugh Sims having first been duly sworn, states and deposes that ^{he}_{she} is a reputable citizen (State or Federal officer, show what officer or citizen of above County.)

and that ^{he}_{she} believes and has reasonable grounds to believe that spirituous, vinous, malt or intoxicating liquors are being manufactured, sold or kept unlawfully in possession by William Warner in the house or on the premises adjacent thereto now in ^{his}_{her} possession.

The affiant states that ^{he}_{she} bases the aforesaid belief on information furnished ^{him}_{her} by Mrs. William Warner Mercer a reputable citizen of Mercer County, Kentucky, who stated facts as follows: Affiant states of his own knowledge knowledge that said William Warner is at tyr present time drunk and that he heard his wife state that he had one half a gallon jar of moonshine liquor behind the coalhouse on the place now occupied by him as residence. Affiant states that he believes that said Wm. Warner had hid said moonshine liquor on the right of way owned by the Southern Railway Company which operated trains in Mercer County Kentucky.
Affiant states that ^{he}_{she} has read the allegations of the foregoing affidavit and they are true as ^{he}_{she} verily believes.

Hugh Sims

Subscribed and sworn to before me by Hugh Sims
this 3rd day of June, 1932

John W. Ansdale J. C. C.