

MERCER QUARTERLY COURT

R.E.YOUMAN

PLAINTIFF

VS JUDGEMENT

FRANK WILLIS

DEFENDANT

This action coming on for trial and the defendant, Frank Willis having been duly summoned and having failed to appear and the Court being advised <sup>adjudges</sup> ~~finds~~ that plaintiff ~~is entitled to recover~~ of the defendant the sum of $18.30 with interest thereon from March 8, 1926 together with the cost herein expended for which the plaintiff may have execution.

The plaintiff having obtained at commencement of this action ~~in~~ a general order of attachment and Robert Robards Constable of the Sixth District, having levied on one ford touring car 1924 model, belonging to defendant and the court being sufficiently advised, it is adjudged that the attachment on said automobile together with the grounds therefor be and are hereby sustained and the said Constable is ordered and directed to take possession of said car and sell same on some County Court day after after advertising said car in the usual manner provided for by law and he will make due report of his actions herein.