

MERCER COUNTY COURT.

J. W. HICKS

PLFF.

VS

FIN PHILLIPS

DEFT.

It appears from the sheriff's return that the defendant has had more than three days notice of the trial of this case as of this date and he failing to answer, it is adjudged that he is guilty ~~and~~ forcibly detaining a certain house in Mercer County on the road leading from Shakertown to Bushtown about three miles from Burgin, Kentucky, on the farm owned by J. W. Hicks and Sheriff of Mercer County is directed to forcibly eject said Fin Phillips from said property and if necessary to use the force of the county.

It is further adjudged that J. W. Hicks recover of defendant, Fin Phillips his cost here expended.
