

Mercer Quarterly Court.

The George Bohon Company,

Plaintiff

vs Petition in Equity.

Defendants

The plaintiff, the George Bohon Company, states that it is a Corporation duly and regularly organized under the laws of the State of Kentucky. It states that by its articles of incorporation it is authorized to sue and to be sued.

It states that the defendant James Redford on the First day of July, 1911, executed and delivered to this plaintiff, his certain promissory note by the terms of which on the first day of July 1912 after date it promised to pay to it the sum of $75.00 with interest from date until paid, said note being negotiable and payable at the Mercer National Bank of Harrodsburg, Ky and being executed for valuable consideration.

Said note is filed herewith as a part hereof, marked "A" for identity.

It states that the defendant, James Redford, is about to remove his property or a material part thereof, out of this State, not leaving enough therein to satisfy the plaintiff's claim, or the claims of the said defendant's creditors, and that said defendant has sold, or otherwise disposed of his property, with the fraudulent intent to cheat hinder and delay his creditors.

~~Whereas~~ It states that the property and money of the defendant James Redford was transferred and sold in the name of <sup>Mary E</sup> ~~Georgia~~ Redford, but that she has no interest in same.

~~Whereas~~

Paragraph No 2:-

The plaintiff re-affirming all the allegations of the first paragraph and making same a part hereof as fully as if copied herein and for further and other cause of action against the defendant, states that the defendant, James Redford, is indebted
