

as a part hereof, marked "B" for identity. Said debt is paid due and owing.

It states that the defendant James Redford, is about to remove his property or a material part thereof, out of this State, not leaving enough therein to satisfy the plaintiff's claim, or the claims of the said defendant's creditors; that the said defendant has sold, or otherwise disposed of his property, with the fraudulent intent to cheat, hinder and delay his creditors.

It states that this is an action for the recovery of money due upon a contract to pay money, and the defendant, James Redford has no property in this State subject to execution, or not enough thereof to satisfy the plaintiff's demand, and that the collection of the demand will be endangered by delay in obtaining judgment or a return of no property found.

It states that certain property belonging to the defendant James Redford, were sold in the names of the Defendant, ^{Mary E} George Redford and the notes for said property, made payable to her. It states that this was done for the purpose of cheating his creditors ^{and collusion} and by fraud on part of the defendants and that ~~xxxxxxx~~ the defendant James Redford is the real owner of said property and entitled to the proceeds therefrom and that the defendant, Georgia Redford has no interest in same.

Wherefore it prays for a judgment against the defendant in the sum of $75.00 with interest from July 1st, 1911; for a judgment of $98.86 with interest from this date; for a general order of attachment against the property of the defendants; for its costs and all proper relief. It prays that the defendant ^{Mary E} Georgia Redford, ~~be~~ set up any claim she may have to any of the attached property or money. It prays for any and all relief to which it may be entitled.
