

SIX KENTUCKIANS ARE PRISONERS IN PHILIPPINES

Washington, (AP)—The names of six Kentuckians among 336 American soldiers who are held as prisoners of war by the Japanese in the Philippine islands were made public Monday by the War Department.

The prisoners, with next of kin and home address, follow:

First Lt. Marion Leon Daman; Mrs. M. L. Daman, wife, Louisville.

First Lt. William Gentry; James Thomas Gentry, father, Harrodsburg.

First Lt. George Alger Vanarsdall; Mrs. Esther McNamer Vanarsdall, wife, Harrodsburg.

First Lt. Ben F. Van Sant; Vernon V. Van Sant, father, Mount Victory.

First Lt. Norman A. Wides; Morris Wides, father, Lexington.

First Lt. Gerald C. Worthington; Betty Worthington, sister, Louisville.

VanArsdall POW

Clipped By:

jopolony

Fri, Oct 25, 2019