Dedication

MRS. EZRA JONES

MR. D. K. WHITEHEAD

MRS. D. K. WHITEHEAD

We, the Senior Class of 1958, dedicate our yearbook to our sponsors, Mrs. Ezra Jones and Mr. and Mrs. D. K. Whitehead, who have given liberally of their time, experience, and wisdom. They have patiently borne with our youthful follies, and with faith in our futures, have encouraged us to greater and better attainments. Not only have they been our sponsors, but our friends. Any good or noble tasks we may accomplish in the future will be due in a great measure to their interest and guidance.

The Senior Class of 1958

The lowering of the flag marks the end of a school day. To the Seniors, it symbolizes both the end of a school year and a chapter of our lives. As we watch our flag being lowered for the last time, we bid farewell to high school and look forward to new days of responsibilities and achievements.
