

MERCER QUARTERLY COURT.

GEORGE BOHON COMPANY

PLFF.

VS.

PETITION IN EQUITY

J. T. ROYALTY

DEFT.

The plaintiff, The George Bohon Company, states that on the 19th day of March 1913, the defendant, J.T. Royalty, executed and delivered to it a certain promissory note by the terms of which on or before January 1st, 1914 after date he promised to pay to the order of this plaintiff the sum of $44.00 with interest thereon from date until paid, said note being executed for value received and being negotiable and payable at the Mercer National Bank of Harrodsburg, Kentucky.

It states that said note is long since past due and no part of same has been paid. The note is filed herewith as part hereof and marked "A" for identity.

PARAGRAPH #2.

The plaintiff reaffirming the allegations of the first paragraph and for further and other cause of action against the defendant herein states that the defendant bought from this plaintiff between April 23d, 1913 and January 6th, 1914, certain merchandize for which he agreed and promised to pay the different amounts set out in the account, which is filed herewith as part hereof and marked "B" for identity.

It states that said merchandize was delivered to the said defendant at his special instance and request. It states that no part of said account has been paid; that same has been due since January 1st, 1914.
