

MERCER QUARTERLY COURT

James C. Rawlings,

Plff

-vs- Petition.

C. J. Annes,

Deft

The Plaintiff, James C. Rawlings, states that on October 15th 1913, the defendant, C. J. Annes, by his promissory note, which he executed and delivered to L. C. Rawlings, agreed and promised on or before January 1st 1915, to pay to the said L. C. Rawlings the sum of $65.00 with interest thereon ~~fx~~ at 6 per cent per annum until paid. He says that the said L. C. Rawlings died intestate in Todd County, Kentucky, and that the Plff James C. Rawlings and W. E. Rawlings were duly appointed administrators of the estate of the said L. C. Rawlings and that said estate was wound up and said note was turned over and assigned to this plaintiff by delivery by said administrators, and that he is now the owner and holder of the said note, no part of which has ever been paid. Said note ~~is~~ is filed herewith.

Wherefore he prays judgment against the said C. J. Annes for the said sum of $65. with interest thereon from Oct 15th 1913.
