

MERCER COUNTY COURT-

JULY TERM - JULY 2, 1922-

IN THE MATTER OF THE ATTEMPTED PROBATE OF THE ALLEGED WILL OF MRS. VIRGINIA CLAUS-

Comes now Jack Claus, husband of the testatrix Mrs. Virginia Claus, individually, and, also, as next friend of John Aubry Claus, an infant son of the testatrix, Mrs. Virginia Claus, and this respondent, Jack Claus, and objects to the probate of the paper offered as the will of Mrs. Virginia Claus, for the reason that the said paper is not the will of the said Mrs. Virginia Claus as she did not possess sufficient mental capacity at the time of the making of said alleged will to make same and for the further reason that she was subjected to the influence of her relatives and was unduly and unlawfully influenced by them in the making of said paper and that by reason thereof the said paper has never been and is not now the will of the said Mrs. Virginia Claus-
