

Mercer Quarterly Court

Hartford Fire Ins. Co. Plt'f.

vs--- Amended answer

John C. Horn

Def't.

Plaintiff

Hartford Fire Insurance Co.

Mercer Quarterly Court

Defendant

John C. Horn, defendant herein, and xxxxxx without waiving any of the allegations in his original answer, but relying on them as much as if copied in full in this amended answer, says that the policy of insurance issued to defendant by plaintiff contained the following provision, to wit: "This insured may cancel when seen fully and actually paid in cash," Defendant says that he paid the first premium, note or obligation when due, in cash, and before the insurance covered by said premium, note or obligation had expired he instructed the said company that the only authorized agent to cancel the said policy of insurance; he says that the said agent was to cancel the said policy of insurance. Defendant further says that he has paid the said premium, note or obligation and that the said policy of insurance is now in force and that the said company is now liable to pay the amount of the said policy of insurance.

~~Def't. says that he has paid the said premium, note or obligation~~
~~and that the said policy of insurance is now in force~~
~~and that the said company is now liable to pay the~~ ~~amount of the said policy of insurance.~~
Def't. says that he has paid the said premium, note or obligation
and that the said policy of insurance is now in force
and that the said company is now liable to pay the amount of the said policy of insurance.