

Mercer Quarterly Court

Hartford Fire Insurance Co.

Plaintiff

vs--- Ammended Answer

John C. Horn

Defendant

Comes now John C. Horn, defendant herein, and ~~xxxxxx~~ without waiving any of the allegations in his original answer, but relying on them as much as if copied in full herein, and pleading futher says that the policy of insurance insurance issued to defendant by plaintiff contained the following provision, to wit: "the insured may cancel when the premium, note or obligation given for such premium, has been fully and actually paid in cash," inDefendant says that he payd the first premium, note or obligation when due, in cash, and before the insurance covered by said premium, note or obligation had expired he instructed the said Company thru its duly authorized agent to cancel the said policy of insurance; he says that the said agent agreed to cancel the said policy of insurance. ~~a defendant further says that he never had the said policy in his possession that the Plaintiff's agent retained the policy~~
Wherefore & etc. C. JAMES
Attorney for defendant

~~Def. further says that he completed~~
~~and the premium~~
Def. says that signed a demand for cancellation of the said policy, as required by the Company, and delivered said demand to the said Company, thru its agents.