Mercer County Court.

Affiant, J. B. Roberts, states that W.K. Cardwell was by the verdict of a jury and judgment of this court, on the 24th day of February, 1921, adjudged to be a person of unsound mind, and ordered by the Court to be sent to Sprague's Sanatorium, Lexington, Ky., an institution designed for the care and cure of persons suffering from ailments of this character. He further states that on March 24, 1921, the said Cardwell was discharged by the Authorities of said Institution as cured and restored to his proper senses, and affiant hereby declares that the said W.K. Cardwell has been restored to his proper senses and is now competent to transact business for himself. He, therefore, requests the court to impanel a jury to inquire into the facts, and for such orders as may be necessary to a complete restoration of his competency in his dealings with the public.
