tioned and now is.

That the defendant, J. S. Vaught, Jr. is indebted to it in the sum of $121.80 with interest at six per cent from December 16th 1927 for goods, wares and merchandise furnished, sold and delivered to said defendant at his special instance and request and for which defendant promised and agreed to pay.

It says that payment has been demanded but that defendant has failed and refused to pay the said amount or any part thereof and that the whole of same is now due and owing and unpaid.

Wherefore plaintiff prays judgment against defendant for the sum of $121.80 with interest at 6% from December 16th 1927 until paid; for its costs herein and all further re-
