

9 Kentuckians, 1 From Here, Die In Africa

The War Department made public yesterday the names of nine Kentucky soldiers who were killed in action in the North African theater. They were Corp. Elihu Blair, son of Mrs. Louisa Finley, Carbon Glow; Corp. McKinley Blair, son of James W. Blair, Leitchfield; Pvt. Willard C. Brewer, son of Mrs. Alice S. Brewer, Route 3, Louisville.

Corp. Thomas Donohoo, son of Thomas J. Donohoo, Benton; Pfc. James T. Gunther, son of Mrs. Nola Gunther, Madisonville; Pfc. Douglas W. Hite, son of Jack Hite, Morganfield; Corp. Horace L. Miller, son of Bryant E. Miller, Calvert City; Pfc. James W. Reynolds, son of Mrs. Frankie Reynolds, Pippapass, and Pvt. Ray Terry, son of Elizzie Terry, Lerose.

Six Held By Japs.

Private Brewer was inducted in August. Corporal Donohoo previously was reported missing.

The War Department also reported on six Kentuckians who are prisoners of the Japanese. Interned at an unspecified camp are Pvt. Louis B. Barry, son of Mrs. Clara E. Barry, Louisville; Pvt. Howard W. Browning, son of Mrs. Nellie Dixon, Maysville; Pfc. Robert V. Cloyd, son of Mrs. Jessie May Cloyd, Harrodsburg; Pvt. Willis E. Lewis, son of Mrs. Mattie Lewis, Pendleton; Pfc. Cecil Sims, son of Mrs. Cora M. Sims, Harrodsburg, and Pvt. Fred Williams, son of Mrs. Elizabeth Williams, Wayland.

Ray Terry

Clipped By:

s_baker

Fri, Aug 26, 2016