AN APPRECIATIVE CUSTOMER

Danville, Ky.
May 12, 1936

Dear Mr. Hutton:

Sorry I did not get to see you when I was in Harrodsburg this morning. When I picked up about 500 of the booklets, which you had completed.

I just want to tell you what a wonderful job we think you have accomplished on this Anniversary Sale. In fact, I consider it the equal of any job of advertising that I have ever seen coming from Louisville or Cincinnati, and I think that you and your men deserve all the credit in the world for accomplishing such fine work.

I also want to thank you for the fine cooperation that you have given in putting the work thru, and delivering them on time. This, in itself has been a big help, for it assures us of getting all advertising material in the mails in plenty of time to begin our sale as planned.

Again thanking you very kindly for your cooperation, and with kindest regards, I am

Cordially,

Walter Frankel.

Surprise Dinner On Mother's Day

Mrs. Nannie Hawkins was given a surprise Mother's Day dinner at her home Sunday by her children. When she returned from church all had arrived and had laden the dining room table with a delicious and bountiful dinner.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Sam Wiley and three children, Mr. and Mrs. John Freeman, Mr. and Mrs. Ansel Adkinson and three children, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Price and two children and Misses Lucy and Nannie Lee Hawkins.

Miss Whiteside

Honored With Luncheon

Miss Mary Louise Whiteside, of Winchester, pretty bride-elect of Mr. Andrew Denton, of Owingsville, was the guest of honor on Saturday at a lovely 1 o'clock luncheon which was given by her sister, Miss Jean Whiteside, at the Greentree Inn, Lexington. Miss Whiteside, who has many friends in Harrodsburg, was graduated from Kentucky Wesleyan College, where she was a member of the Chi Upsilon Chi sorority.

At the luncheon an artistic arrangement of iris centered the lace covered table and attractive lace cards bearing a silver silhouette of a bride and groom marked the places. Favors were dainty nosegays and the guest of honor was presented with a shoulder bouquet of talisman roses and lilies of the valley.

Guests were: Miss Ruth Denton, of Owingsville; Misses Jane and Mary Elizabeth Hutton, Harrodsburg; Miss Irene Petty and Miss Emma Catherine Wilder, Winchester and Miss Elizabeth Hardin, Covington.

Here For The Week End

Miss Louie Ruth Vivion has returned to Bethel College for Women at Hopkinsville, after the weekend at home. She brought as her guest, Miss Christine Carter, of Hopkinsville.

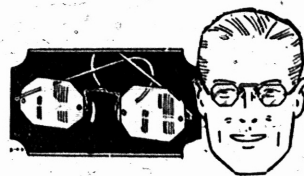

Home From College

Miss Peggy Alexander, student at Georgetown College, spent the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Alexander, Danville road. She was joined by Miss Nancy Lee Newland, of Stanford, who was her guest.

Versailles

Guests

Mr. and Mrs. John Edger, William and Robert Edger, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Thompson and three children, all of Versailles, were guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Edger and family.
