

MERCER QUARTERLY COURT.

Harrodsburg Implement Company,

Plff.

vs Petition

Robert Peckham,

Deft

Paragraph 1-

The Plaintiff, the Harrodsburg Implement Company, states that it is a corporation duly organized under the laws of Kentucky; that the ~~plaintiff~~ defendant Robert Peckham by his promissory note, which he ~~executed~~ and delivered to the plaintiff on March 1st 1921, agreed and promised that on or before the 1st day of August 1921 he would pay to the plaintiff $94.40, with interest thereon from date until paid, no part of which has ever been paid. A copy of said note is filed herewith.

Paragraph 2-

Plaintiff says that in April 1921 it sold and delivered to the ~~plaintiff~~ defendant at his special instance and request one plow share and on May 1921 he sold and delivered to the defendant 5 dry cells, for which the defendant agreed and promised to pay for said plow share 90 cts and for said dry cells $2.50, no part of which has ever been paid. Said account is filed herewith as part hereof.

Wherefore it prays judgment against the deft for the said sum of $94.40 with interest thereon at 6% per annum from March 1st 1921 and for the sum of $3.40 with interest thereon from July 1st 1921. It prays for its cost and for all general and equitable relief.
