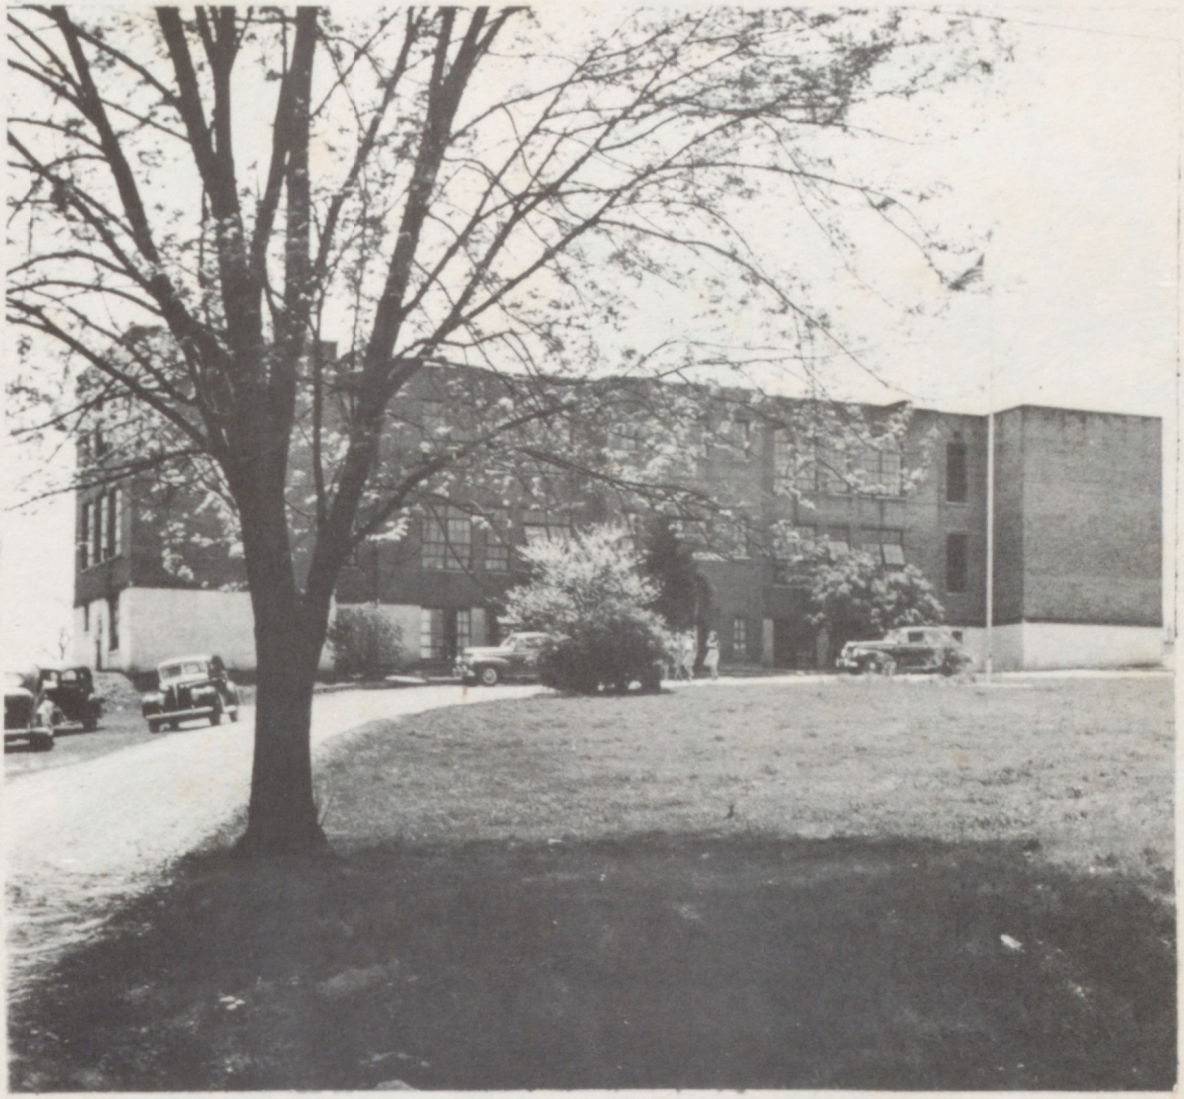
DEDICATION

We, the Senior Class of 1949 having reached the second Milestone of our educational career look back with fond memories.

Even, in the pleasure of our graduation, we realize that this achievement has not been reached entirely by our own efforts.

If it had not been for the efforts and sacrifices of you dear parents we wouldhave been unable to have completed our high school course.

We feel that we owe to you our appreciation of these sacrifices. To show you this appreciation we dedicate this annual to you and may you take this dedication as a symbol of our thanks for your sacrifices.



Dear old Salvisa you hold for us,
Fond memories we will always be proud to discuss,
It is here we've made lifelong friends,
Which will remain in our hearts
till our lives end.

CLASS HISTORY

As we near the completion of our high school career we look back with regret to those of our number who have fallen by the wayside.

We began our Freshman year with twenty-one members who remained with us throughout the year. Our teachers who taught us in our Freshman year were: Mr. Otto Satterly, Principal; Mrs. Satterly, Home Ec.; Miss Cox, English, and Mrs. Mitchell, mathematics.

In the fall of '46 we returned to Salvisa a little less frightened than we were the year before. When we arrived at school we found all our twenty-one classmates. The second six weeks our number was increased by one, Evelyn Drury, who came from Louisville to join our ranks. This year we had a different principal, Mr. Delbert Cunningham. Our Home Economics teacher had also changed, Mrs. Mildred Byars taking Mrs. Sattrely's place. Miss Isham came as our history teacher. Miss Cox was still here as our English instructor. Carroll Sanford and Elise Rogers left us before we finished the year.

In the fall of 1947 when we came back to Salvisa, we found only seventeen of our original number. Addie Kurtz and Hazel Wooldridge had married during the summer. Richard Payton did not return because he had moved to Warsaw, Ky. During the first semester Bert Mattingly moved to Rose Hill. At the end of the first semester Dorothy Jean Gash withdrew to become Mrs. Bernice Baxter. Dorothy Travillian came from McAfee to become a member of our class.

As we approached the end of our last year the following are the members of our class: Bobbie Peyton, Barbara Jean Goodlett, Roberta Goodlett, Nancy Lou Gash, Etta Howard, Evelyn Williams, Helena Drury, Dorothy Travillian, Joyce Jean Sanders, Marcella Jeffries, and Jean Beasley. Patricia Grady and Patsy Gammon Trisler did not enter with us as Seniors. Our teachers for this year are Mr. Delbert Cunningham, Principal; Mrs. McGaughey, English and General Business; Miss Stratton, History; Miss Moss, Home Economics.

THE CLASS POEM

We the Seniors of '49
Will introduce ourselves in rhyme.
Ten Girls and one boy are we,
And we are a jolly bunch—See.

Dorothy Travillian joined us in Junior Year,
And from her no noise you will hear.
Rather reserve but very sweet,
As a pal she's hard to beat.

Bobbie Peyton our only man,
He will tease you if he can.
Left alone by his pals,
But he is surrounded by the gals.

Look at that mouth, man, Oh! man,
Talk about yelling she sure can.
In a jeep she likes to ride,
This is where Joyce Sanders keeps her pride.

Marcella Jeffries has a steady "Bo",
And after him she will always go.
A little Blue Ford she's always guiding,
And there she hopes to continue riding.

Rather quiet and very kind,
A helpful task Jean Beasley will find,
At the Post Office she's never late,
To get a letter from a far off State.

Nancy Lou Gash our cute little Blonde,
And of the boys she's fond.
She is our Glamour Girl,
And will really put you in a twirl.

Roberta Goodlett an energetic miss,
To talk with her is surely bliss,
Those wise cracks are plenty slick,
She's the one who makes the Seniors tick.

Barbara Goodlett our darling red bird,
Always seen and sometimes heard.
And cheerleading is her delight,
Remember*—She's seldom home at night.

Etta Lee Howard is jolly and strong,
And in her lessons she's never wrong.
A real sport in any game,
Some day she will be in the Hall of Fame.

Evelyn Williams is quiet and smart,
On her career she already has a start.
Is anxious to finish her course,
So she can join her hubby in the Air Force.

Helena Drury is our efficient classmate,
And with her work she's never late.
Soon she will go to Asbury College,
To seek a man—or knowledge???

CLASS PROPHECY

The year is 1969 and the place is the beautiful campus of Salvisa University. The members and guests of the high school graduating class of 1949 are assembled in the Brown Room of the McGaughey Building for a class reunion.

As we look among the guests we see how the dreams and aspirations of these classmates have taken form.

The center of the group is the one man of the now famous class. Bobbie Peyton is busy signing autograph books. Of course he has now taken all the attention away from Arthur Godfrey, since his new program sponsored by Corky Crackers was launched on the Kirkwood Broadcasting System.

Other members of the class who have become radio stars have come up from Renfro Valley to furnish music for the occasion. Roberta Goodlett who now acts as Granny Harper and Joyce Sanders the modern "Little Eller" are definitely providing amusement for their former classmates.

United States Senator, Dorothy Travillian has just arrived at the last minute from an extensive campaign tour as this is election year.

Helena Drury flew in a few minutes earlier on a plane from Mongolia where she has labored as a Missionary for the past fifteen years.

Other members of the class have become outstanding in their respective fields. Evelyn Williams' advice to the lovelorn column is now carried by the nations largest news papers. Evelyn has just been consulted by Marcella Jeffries. Marcella, now Salvisa's oldest old maid, was the pretty and popular blonde of the class of 1949, but she couldn't make up her mind to leave mama so there she sits.

Nancy Lou Gash, Conover Agency's most glamorous model is here for the great event and is busily chatting with Mrs. Carroll Sanford, the former Barbara Jean Goodlett. Besides being a capable housewife, Barbara is also inventor. Her electrocramograph is quite popular among the students of Salvisa University. This instrument if attached to a book and the victim's head for the night will insure making a perfect grade on next day's exam.

Barbara's greatest enemy is one of the faculty member, her old classmate, Etta Howard, now Mrs. Delbert Cunningham. Etta teaches geometry while her husband draws the old age pension.

Last but not least among the reunion guests is Jean Beasley, the class Queen of '49, who has now succeeded her father as the Salvisa School Bus Driver.

And so just as the class of 1949 are enjoying their reunion we hope you have enjoyed this visit with us.

CLASS WILL

of the Class of '49

We, the class of 1949 being of unsound minds and having been taught by morons, leave our last will and testament as follows:

Bobbie Peyton leaves his ability to be the only Senior Boy to Bennett Morris.

Marcella Jeffries leaves her ability to ride around in Streamlined cars to Betty Cunningham. Betty watch the Fleetline Chevrolet.

Dorothy Travillian leaves her Quietness to Delbert Harlow. Goodbye to those War Whoops, Delbert.

To Arlene Parker, Evelyn Williams leaves her ability to get a man. We hope she has as much luck as Evelyn has had.

Joyce Lane Sanders leaves her height to Nannie Perkins, so she can really get up in the world.

Roberta Goodlett leaves her jolly disposition to Ralph Rigsby and W. H. Cunningham. Keep the seniors laughing, boys.

Etta Lee Howard leaves her diligence to study to Billy Hockersmith in hope he will be next years' Valedictorian.

Barbara Jean Goodlett leaves her excess fat to Geraldine Springate, so she can run it off in the gym class.

Jean Beasley leaves her curly hair to W. R. Riley and Donald Barker. Toni's are usually successful boys.

Nancy Lou Gash leaves to J. B. Stratton her energy hoping he will at least get one lesson prepared on time.

To Gladys Tindall, Helena Drury leaves her blue glasses, so she won't strain her eyes in office work.

BASKETBALL

The beginning of the season found the team with one regular, Bennet Morris. With plenty of team work the squad was ready for action when we met McAfee on November 24. It was an easy victory for Salvisa.

The next two games were disappointments to us as we lost to Lawrenceburg and Mackville.

We were made happy again on December 10 when we made a trip to Williamsburg and won a victory with a score of 37 to 23. Again on December 14 we were victorious when we won from Western with a score of 49 to 29.

Bad luck hit us again and we lost to Parksville and Crab Orchard.

We gained our confidence and won on January 14 a game from Rose Hill with a score of 42 to 14.

Parksville and Mackville surprised us by winning from us with a score of 35 to 30 and 45 to 36 respectively.

After these two defeats we were winners of the county tournament in which we defeated McAfee.

As the basketball season drew to a close we were defeated by McAfee with a score of 47 to 46.

We also lost the Crab Orchard game who scored 49 to our 32.

We were victorious over Williamsburg, score 42 to 40

Western scored 41 to 32 and Rose Hill with a score of 42 to 36.
