Iseberg Bros.,

Petition

VS

Defendant

H.S. Yates, Mercer National Bank,

Garnishee

The Plaintiff, Iseberg Bros., states that the defendant is indebted to them in the sum of $27.00 for clothing purchased of this plaintiff by the said defendant for which he promised to pay the amount as above stated. That defendant at the time of making said purchase in order to pay for said clothing executed and delivered to this plaintiff his check for $27.00 drawn on the Mercer National Bank of Harrodsburg, Kentucky and dated December 26th., 1920; that said check was duly presented by this plaintiff at the Mercer National Bank for payment but that same was not paid and was returned to this defendant. Said check is filed herewith as part hereof.

Wherefore plaintiff prays for judgment etc.

Plaintiff states that this is an action for money due on said account being a contract to pay money; that he believes they should have and recover the full value of said ~~###~~ account together with interest and costs of this action; that defendant has not sufficient property in this state to satisfy and pay said said indebtedness nor has he sufficient property subject to execution to satisfy and pay the same and the collection thereof will be
