S. T. Elliott

Mercer Quarterly Court.

Cogar Grain & Coal Company,

Plaintiff.

--VS-- Petition.

S.T.Elliott,

Defendant.

The plaintiff the Cogar Grain and Coal Company states that it is a corporation duly and legally incorporated under the laws of Kentucky, empowered to contract and be contracted with and to sue and be sued; it states that the defendant S.T.Elliott by his promissory note dated November 10th, 1914, and executed and delivered to plaintiff and by which he agreed to pay it thereafter Ninety One Dollars and eight cents with six per cent interest thereon from maturity until paid; it says that said note is filed herewith as part hereof marked "A" and is due and no part of it has been paid; wherefore the plaintiff prays judgment for its debt, costs and all proper relief.

W.A.Taylor,

Attorney for Plaintiff.
