By MAC ARTHUR

TWENTY - ONE YEARS AGO FROM THE HERALD FILES

AUGUST 13, 1915

The demand for horses in the British, French, Italian War with Germany is drawing on the American supply to an alarming extent. Breeders are talking of applying to the government to stop the further exportation. It is said the Allies are preparing for three more years of war.

Fire blight, a scourge to fruit trees, is doing much damage to Mercer county apple orchards.

Dr. J. Dowden Bruner advertises the opening in the fall of Daughters College.

Judge Charles A. Hardin carried every county in the district in his race in the August primary for reelection as circuit judge. Emmett Puryear won re-nomination as commonwealth's attorney. Owsley Stanley was nominated for Governor.

Prof. Sam Thomas, of St. Louis, was in Harrodsburg Friday on his way to Perryville, home of his childhood. As a young child he was taken to Indiana by his parents to reside, and the next time he was in Perryville was when he fought on the federal side during the Battle of Perryville. He was badly crippled during the battle, but has been a successful teacher. His father was a Methodist circuit rider. Prof. Thomas said that the only time he was ever in Harrodsburg was when he was five years old and rode horseback behind his mother from Perryville to Harrodsburg one day to shop. He said the eventful day made a lasting impression on him. Prof. Thomas was returning to his childhood home to see if he could find any relatives.

Deaths: Charles Powell, 61, died Wednesday at home on the Perryville pike. William Hill, 41, died Monday at Nevada.

PATH OF TRUE LOVE IS NEVER SMOOTH

The path of true love is far from smooth, one resident of New York knows.

Nelson Vallis will marry his sweetheart next week. They planned to marry last month, but they couldn't because Vallis was arrested in April as an alien and was ordered deported to Bermuda, where he was born.

His father and mother brought him here when he was 3. His mother died, his father disappeared and he was sent to an orphanage at Hastings-on-Hudson, where he lived until he was 18, four years ago. Not long after that he went to Bermuda for a vacation, found he had $2,500 coming to him from the estate of an admiral friend of his father, and stayed a year. When he tried to return he was told he was an alien.

So he stowed away, landed safely, and started his life again in Bayonne, where he met Cecelia Cotter, 19, and became engaged. He was arrested April 14. After he lost all legal appeals, he sent a telegram to President Roosevelt and followed that with a letter. Miss Cotter begged Representative Mary Norton to help her. Recently an order releasing Vallis arrived.

250 EXPECTED AT KENTUCKY CONFERENCE

Arrangements are being completed in Richmond to entertain 250 delegates and ministers who will attend the Kentucky Conference of the Methodist Episcopal church, South, which opens there on September 2. Bishop U. V. W. Darlington, of Huntington, West Va., will preside and preach the closing sermon, September 6.

CONSOLATION

While Nancy was swimming in the Ohio river, her mother and little Betty sat on the bank, watching.

"Oh, I wish Nancy wouldn't swim so far away; if she'd drown, we'd never know what became of her," said the worried mother.

"Oh, yes you would; you could read it in the paper," said Betty consolingly.

PERRYVILLE BOY WINS KY. SPEAKING CONTEST

Joseph Brookshire, Perryville high school senior, will represent Kentucky in the Future Farmers Speaking Contest at Kansas City, Mo. He won the State contest held at the convention in Bowling Green. He also won second place in the State vocal contest.

BIRD MIGRATION

Birds come and go from north to south, not because of the weather, but because of the shortening of the days. For instance robins arrive about the same time each spring, although there may be a blizzard at the time, and they migrate south when there is excessive heat.

HEAT CAVES IN CINCINNATI CHURCH

The heat was blamed for the collapse of Phillips Evangelical church in Cincinnati. The entire roof and walls of the church auditorium caved in and caused a damage estimated at $35,000.

BRUCE BARTON Says:

Ordinary Folks Important

Every year a certain executive delivers a speech to the members of his organization, which contains this standard paragraph: "The most important people in this office are not my partners or myself; they are the young people who sit in the reception hall, and the president's study was assailed with high-pitched demands that he come forth and declare himself."

"If these young people are going to insult anybody, I hope it will not be the young messenger boys who deliver telegrams and packages. Be careful never to insult them. You never can tell how soon they will grow up to be executives in positions where they may have a big influence on our affairs."

An automobile dealer mistreated a certain difficult customer, who forthwith acquired a permanent grouch and devoted much of his spare time to airing his grievance. Nobody knows how many sales he killed in the course of the year, probably hundreds. A meter-reader for a public utility company was rude to a housewife. Her husband was subsequently elected to the state legislature and became a thorn in the company's side.

Every business, big or little, is dependent for its good will on the humdrum activities of very ordinary men and women. These people are unimportant on the payroll, but they may be mightily important in the balance sheet.

Then They Got Married
The campus of a certain university was picketed by fiery-eyed youngsters carrying banners of violent protest. Just what the object of their indignation may have been, I can't for the moment remember. It was a lively spectacle; a couple of windows were broken in a recitation hall, and the president's study was assailed with high-pitched demands that he come forth and declare himself.

I met him on a golf course a week later and referred to the rumpus. "You look pretty serene for a man who has lived through so many uprisings," I remarked. He laughed. "They are a regular part of the job," he said. "Every once in a while the young man's thoughts turn to parade and denunciations. I have watched the phenomenon for twenty-five years. Also, I have kept a list of the principal riot leaders. I know what happens to them."

"That's interesting," I said. "What does happen to them?"

"They get jobs, and then they get married, and then they get better jobs. And by that time they are no longer interested in over-turning things. They are too busy playing the game."

It will be a sad day for the world if youth ever ceases to have its period of protest. Youth ought to be dissatisfied and impatient; it ought to look critically at the messy fashion in which its elders have run the world. The sharp point of its protest pricks old age and causes some grudging forward movements.

But Nature seldom allows the movement to develop into a runaway. Almost before youth is aware of what is happening, she has married him, and put him to work, and transferred him to the ranks of good citizens.

MAN BADLY BURNED WHILE CLEANING WIFE'S GRAVE

Herbert Duncan sustained painful burns while cleaning off his cemetery lot at Pleasant Ridge, in Grant County. Mr. Duncan buried his bride of three months, some two months ago, and it was around this grave that he was removing debris.

To prevent grass chippers he had used coal oil on his person and it became ignited. He had on rubber boots and according to the story, was unable to remove them. While his burns are serious, he is said to be resting as comfortably as could be expected. —Williamsburg Courier.

TWO MILLION FOR OLD FOLKS; HALF MILLION FOR HELPERS

They used to tell a story about the old wag who handed the chairman of the foreign missions society a dollar bill and told her that one cent of it was for the heathen. Asked what the other ninety-nine was for, he said, "to get the cent to the heathen."

Out of the two and a half million appropriated in Kentucky for old age pensions, nearly a half million dollars have already been set aside for the office and field expenses; but up to the time of this writing nobody had got any of the "pensions" due since the first of July.

CAUSED SMILES IN A FRANKFORT CONGREGATION

Sunday before last, a Frankfort minister preached a sermon on the evils of drink. He wound up by saying that he wished he had every barrel of whiskey, beer and gin in the state, that he would take it right down and dump it into the Kentucky river. Then he sat down, and the man who leads the singing got up and gave out the number of the closing hymn. Some members of the congregation snickered when they discovered that it was "Shall We Gather at the River?" —Lexington Leader.

519 MOTION PICTURES PRODUCED IN U. S., 1935

Five hundred and nineteen feature-length motion pictures were produced in the United States during 1935; 244 of these being from original screen plays, 41 from stage plays, 142 from novels, three from biographies, 37 from short stories, and 52 from miscellaneous sources.

THAT ICE CREAM TAX

In July a young man's fancy lightly turns to thoughts of dates. But with dates he needs must figure on the cost of two full plates. Girls and courting are quite pleasant. But often something must be done. When two appetites are present. For two cones cost more than one. Joyriding in July is charming. And the girls are awful sweet. But an ever-present problem. How to count and make both ends meet.

—Hopkinsville News Era.

HAPPIES REPLACE RUBIES

They're Happies now instead of Rubies. At least, that's what the new tax pennies are being called along the main stem. For the cosmetics, soft drinks, chewing gum, candy and what-nots, you are paying a 20-per cent tax, whether you like it or not. The drug store slang for the morning drink is now a nickel and a Happy. —Winchester Sun.

CHOICE OF CHURCH CONFESSOR OR PRISON

An Oklahoma youth, convicted of felonious assault, was given his choice of five years in the penitentiary or confessing his sins before a large congregation in his home town church and promising to lead a Christian life henceforth. It is perhaps needless to say that he decided to confess and promise.

BIRD KILLS SELF

Mocked by his own reflection in a big window of residence in Roanoke, Va., a large male mockingbird determined to terminate the existence of his "enemy." After a week of dueling with his adversary, the bird flew against the window with such speed that his neck was broken.

ROBERTSON ESTATE SUE

BY COLLINS SUMRALL ET AL

The A. S. Robertson estate was named defendants in a $2,000 damage suit filed this week with Circuit Clerk John S. Baughman for trial at the September term of the Boyle Circuit Court.

The suit was filed by Collins Sumrall, Lillian Evans, Mary Holmes and the Fidelity and Columbia Trust Company as a committee for the Sumrall estate for damages due to a Main street building leased in 1925 to Mr. Robertson.

A house at First and Main streets, under lease to Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Richardson, and other property belonging to the Robertson estate was attached by court officials, pending the settlement of the suits.

LIFE-SIZE-BABY PICTURE IN SAN FRANCISCO PAPER

Exhilarated last week by news that a Mrs. Lawrence Eugene Quinn had given birth to a 14 lb. 7 oz. boy—a San Francisco record—the editors of the San Francisco Call-Bulletin rushed a cameraman to the hospital, snapped Lawrence Eugene Quinn, Jr., splashed the result down the entire first page of their second news section believed they had printed the first full-length, life-size portrait of a human being ever to appear in a newspaper.

HISTORIC CHAPEL BEING REMOVED, RE-ERECTED

The old St. Catherine Chapel, erected more than a century ago on the site of the original St. Catherine of Siena Academy in the beautiful Cartwright Creek Valley, is being removed and re-erected in its original form on the new Academy grounds near Bardstown Road.

Because of the age of this chapel, and the history attached, it will attract many visitors in its new setting—Springfield Sun.

CHRONOLOGY OF THE HOME

The "Average Man" column of a recent Lexington Herald gave the following chronology of "the house": 1890—where the family lived. 1900—where the mother and young folks stayed. 1918—where the wife and mother stayed. 1925—where the cook stayed. 1936—where the gang gathered sometimes when it was 108 in the shade.

YOUTH OVERCOMES HANDICAP

Vincent Wilbot, 25, of Rochester, N. Y., was determined he would become an expert typist despite the loss of his right arm in an accident. He rigged a string from his typewriter shift key to a make-shift foot pedal to accelerate writing capitals. Business school instructors say he is showing remarkable speed.

HANDLE SUMMER FOODS WITH CARE

Disease germs have three avenues of entrance into the human system. They may be inhaled, swallowed, or may get in through scratched or incised wounds of the skin.

In warm weather, when most of our houses are wide open, the danger of inhaled germs is practically nil. Pure air is a wonderful disinfectant, capable, except against the tuberculosis germ, which should be guarded against all seasons.

Most acquired infections in summer, are of the digestive tract; the bacteria are swallowed with food or water. We should, therefore, be discriminating at this season. Edibles taken raw, must be scrupulously clean, and thoroughly masticated. Fruits should be ripe, fresh, and free from punctures by twigs or specks of decay. Don't give the child a banana that is green, or ripened, or punctured though the skin. Potato salad that is carried over from meal to meal—better throw it away, or do without the mixture entirely.

See that all cooked food is thoroughly done, especially meats. It is not good policy to eat the boiled ham that you had left over from the picnic, especially if it reposed in the basket on the ground for a few hours. The same is true of cake, wrapped in newspaper and kept in the same basket. Flies haunt outdoor picnics. They love to crawl over deviled eggs, potato salads and the like. It is not pleasant to think of what they may shake off from their filthy feet and bodies.

It goes without saying that all drinking water these days should be attested in purity, by a capable rather than a political official. A stitch in time saves more than nine. Put nothing of doubtful purity into your stomach, and be careful not to overload.

Watch Your Kidneys!

Be Sure They Properly Cleanse the Blood

YOUR kidneys are constantly filtering waste matter from the blood stream. But kidneys sometimes lag in their work—do not act as nature intended—fail to remove impurities that poison the system when retained. Then you suffer nagging backache, dizziness, scanty or too frequent urination, getting up at night, puffiness under the eyes, feel nervous, miserable—all upset.

Don't delay! Use Doan's Pills. Doan's are especially for poorly functioning kidneys. They are recommended by grateful users the country over. Get them from any druggist.
