H. B. Cassell

Plaintiff

-v-

Affidavit

Wm. Tatum

Defendant

The affiant, H. B. Cassell, states that this is an action to recover from the defendant $67.00 for money due to him as a balance on a contract to pay for labor done; that said sum is ~~just~~ due and owing; that he believes he should have and recover that sum and interest and costs and also further sums set out in the second paragraph of this action; that the defendant has not sufficient property subject to execution to make and pay the amount of said debt, and the collection thereof will be endangered by delay in obtaining a judgment and return of no property found.
