

DEATHS

CHAPMAN

Mrs. Mary Ann (Polly) Chapman, 73, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Scott Anderson, Mortonsville, Woodford county, Friday, Aug. 7, 1936, following a long illness.

She is survived by two sons, Luke H. Chapman, Lexington, and Homer Chapman, Nicholasville; two daughters, Mrs. Scott Anderson and Mrs. Clarence Craig, Mortonsville; two brothers, John Moore and George Moore, Salvisa; three sisters, Mrs. Jack Robinson and Mrs. Jeff Robinson, McCoun's Ferry; Mrs. George Hill, Georgetown, Ill., and seven grandchildren.

Mrs. Chapman was the widow of Thomas Chapman, who died several years ago, and also a daughter of William Henry and Margaret Craig Moore. She was a devoted mother and a Christian woman. She was a member of the Methodist church. She was born and reared in Mercer county and went to Woodford after her marriage to Mr. Chapman.

The funeral was held Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock at Hebron, Anderson county, the Rev. Olson Harrison officiating. Pallbearers were: J. D. Craig, Henry Moore, Redmon Moore, Clarence Moore, Eldridge Craig and Leslie Moore.

JONTE

Mrs. Julia Halstead Jonte, 93, a former resident of Harrodsburg, was brought here Sunday afternoon, August 2, for burial in the family lot beside her son, George Jonte, her daughter, Miss Abbie Jonte, and grandson, Winston. Mrs. Jonte came here a number of years ago with her son and his family. She remained until the death of her daughter and then went to Louisville to reside with her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Sallie Jonte, who with her son, George Jonte Jr., accompanied the remains to Harrodsburg for burial. The deceased was much liked by those who knew her here, as she possessed many splendid qualities of mind and character.

ECKLER

Mrs. Lela Bixler Eckler, 70, widow of Rev. W. T. Eckler, died at her home in Salvisa about 10 o'clock Friday night, August 7, 1936, after several years of invalidism. Her funeral was conducted at the residence Sunday morning at 10 o'clock, by Rev. F. T. Howard, pastor of the Salvisa Methodist church, and she was taken to Cynthiana for burial beside her husband who died about 22 years ago. After his death Mrs. Eckler returned to Salvisa to reside. She was held in the highest esteem by all who knew her. Surviving are a step-daughter, Mrs. Pearl Temple, of Berry, near Cynthiana, and a number of nephews and nieces among the latter being Mrs. Leon Morgan, Harrodsburg, and her sister, Mrs. J. T. Nevins, Anderson county.

COOK

Mrs. Annie Parker Cook, 86, widow of the late William Grant Cook, of Harrodsburg, died Tuesday morning, August 11, at her home on North Fourth street, Danville. Mrs. Cook was born in Fayette county, the daughter of Warren O. and Rebecca E. Parker. She came to Harrodsburg as a bride and resided here for many years until she moved to Danville. She was regarded here with great esteem.

Surviving are two daughters, Mrs. S. C. Herbert, of Norfolk, Va., and Mrs. L. Q. Nelson, Danville; four grandchildren, Mrs. C. A. Browning, Knoxville, Tenn.; B. G. and H. E. Owens, and Mrs. Agnes Hoffman; two sisters, Mrs. Sallie M. Scudder, Washington, D. C., and Mrs. G. A. Bradford, of Columbia, Mo.; a brother, Warren A. Parker, Orlando, Fla., and five grandchildren.

Funeral services were conducted at the residence at 4 p. m. Wednesday. Burial was in the family lot, Harrodsburg cemetery.

WILSON

Death claimed Mrs. Addie Wilson, 89, one of the most venerable and popular women here, Wednesday morning about 10 o'clock at the A. D. Price Memorial Hospital. She had been a patient at the hospital for some weeks, but seemed about as well as usual until stricken with a heart attack about an hour before the end.

The daughter of Thomas and Margaret Hansford Stephenson, she came of pioneer stock, and was the widow of James Calhoun Wilson prominent business man here during his period. He died a number of years ago. She is survived by a nephew, Mr. Stephenson Haydon, Harrodsburg, and a niece, Mrs. Sue Epperson, Hollywood, Calif., and the following great-nephews and nieces, Earl Epperson, Atlanta, Ga.; Miss Patsy Epperson, Hollywood; Mrs. Leo Hand, San Francisco; and Mrs. Feyer Miller, Pacific Grove, Calif.

By her own request a simple funeral service was held Thursday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the family lot in Spring Hill Cemetery. The service was conducted by her pastor, Rev. T. Hassell Bowen, of the Christian church.

Active bearers were John Buster, H. C. Bohon, Ike Gaither, C. E. Rankin, Charlie Hardin and Dr. Tom Price. Honorary bearers were John Parrish, James T. Cook, T. P. Tewmeyer, J. J. Graves, M. M. Daviess and Henry Wood.

PROCTOR

Death claimed Mrs. Bessie Mae Brown Proctor, wife of Mr. Lapsley Proctor, of near Bohon, on August 8, 1936, at 2:30 a. m. at the A. D. Price Memorial Hospital. Her sudden passing was a shock and grief to relatives and friends as she was popular because of her many fine traits of character. She was born August 31, 1910 in Mercer county. Surviving, besides her husband, are an eight-day-old daughter, Ella Frances, her father, A. J. Brown a brother, Basil

Brown, grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Henderson Black. Her funeral was on Monday at the Hopewell Baptist church where she had been an active member since early girlhood. The officiating minister was her pastor, Rev. E. E. Sexton. Burial in Hopewell cemetery.

REVIVAL AT SHAWNEE RUN

God is blessing our community with a great revival. Christians hearts are being warmed, and souls are being saved. Rev. Chas. T. Ricks pastor of the First Baptist Church, Corbin, Ky., continues to bring heart-stirring messages on the great truths of the Bible. Friday evening he will deliver an address especially to the young people. Preceding the address beginning at 7:15 Mr. Byron Carmony, the soloist, will feature a recital of sacred music. He will sing two numbers that he has composed. While directing the music at Camp Alliston last year he composed "Then I Met Jesus." During the past week he composed a selection entitled, "Shawnee Run," which he wishes to dedicate to this church. He plays both the piano and guitar. An offering will be taken. The services will be continued through Sunday providing the interest demands it. "The Friendly Church" extends a hearty welcome to all of these services.

TUESDAY NIGHT GAME

The Presbyterians defeated the Baptists 5 to 1 and the Methodists triumphed over the Christians 11 to 9 in Tuesday night's doubleheader of the Harrodsburg Church League softball play.

In the first game the Baptists secured but one run in the initial frame although they collected as many hits as the victors. Errors cost them the game.

Batteries were: Presbyterians—Dunn and Gatchell; Baptists, Royalty and Bottoms.

In the evening's finale, the Methodists won 11 to 9 over the Christians.

Batteries were: Methodists—Davis and Foster; Christians—Pierce and J. Shewmaker.

The Christians meet the Baptists in the first game Friday night with the Presbyterians encountering the Methodists in the finale.

PLAYGROUND GETS $20.00

Harrodsburg got an even break in the double header for benefit of the High School Playground Thursday night. Two picked teams met tens at Danville and Perryville and $20.00 was netted as a result. After expenses were defrayed, $20.00 was turned over to the High School Playground to be used in purchase of equipment.

A ten from Perryville defeated a local picked team 9 to 5 in the opening contest, while another local picked squad defeated the strong Hub team from Danville 10 to 6 in the evening's finale.

FRIDAY'S GAME

The Christians defeated the Presbyterians 10 to 6, and the Baptists defeated the Methodists 15 to 5 in the Friday night double-header in the Church League play Friday night before a large audience.

Pierce and John Shewmaker were batteries for the victors with Dunn and Gatchell on the mound and receiving end for the losers.

Truth and Poetry

In the higher regions of philosophy, and for that matter in all sciences, a thread of poetry is interwoven with the strand of knowledge, and the pursuit of truth, as was seen and proclaimed by Plato, becomes a pursuit of the beautiful.
