

Mercer Circuit Court.

James Taylor Donehey,

Plaintiff.

--VS--

REPLY.

H. A. Burdette &c.,

Defendants.

The plaintiff for reply to second paragraph of Defendants answer herein ^{is} deny that at the time and place complained of by the plaintiff that the said H.A.Burdette found the plaintiff Donehey in the City of Burgin, Ky, drunk, creating and carrying on a disturbance by making loud noises, loud talking, loud cursing and swearing and in this way and otherwise being disorderly and breaking the peace of said town and which was in the presence of said H.A.Burdette; plaintiff denies that because thereof the defendant arrested this plaintiff and it being in the night time when the Police Judge and Magistrate was absent and from his place of business defendant carried the plaintiff to the Town Jail and there imprisoned him till the next morning when he was released.

Plaintiff denies that he was unruly, rough and boisterous in submitting to arrest and ~~denies that~~ in being taken to the jail; plaintiff denies that he had to be compelled to submit to arrest and that in taking this plaintiff to the jail and in arresting him that the said defendant Burdette used only such force and no more as was reasonably necessary to so arrest and take the plaintiff. ~~and that this is the same assault~~

Wherefore he prays as in his original petition and amended petition.

Chas. J. Corn

Plaintiffs Attorney.
