

MERCER QUARTERLY COURT.

W.T.Talbot,

PLFF.

VS. AMENDED PETITION.

TRIFOLIUM BUTTER COMPANY.

PLD.

The plaintiff amends his petition herein and alleges that the claim against the defendant is for cream sold and delivered to thaid company at its special instance and request; that said claim is just and unpaid; that the sum that the affiant aught to recover is $25.00; that the defendant is about to remove, or has removed his property, or a material part thereof, out of this State, not leaving enough therein to satisfy the plaintiff's claim, or the claims of the said defendant's creditors. He says that the defendant has sold, conveyed, and otherwise disposed pf, his property, or suffered or permitted it te be sold, with the fraudulent intent to cheat, hinder and delay his creditors.

Wherefore plaintiff prays for a general order of attachment against the property of the said defendant and for all other relief to which he is or may appear to be entitled and as prayed for in the original petition.
