Ender-Forrester Shoe Company,

Plaintiff,

VS: PETITION

E. R. Foster,

Defendant.

- - - - -

Plaintiff, Ender-Forrester Shoe Company, states that it is a corporation organized under and existing by virtue of the laws of the State of Kentucky and that as such it has the power to sue and be sued; to contract and be contracted with and was so empowered at all times herein mentioned.

It says that it sold to this defendant at his special instant and request certain merchandise in the sum of SIXTY EIGHT DOLLARDS AND NINETY CENTS ( $ 68.90 ), that the said defendant promised and agreed to pay for same but that though often demanded this defendant has failed and refused and still fails and refuses to pay all or any part of said indebtedness and that the whole of same is now due and owing.

An itemized statement ( Duplicate Statement or Invoice ) is filed herewith and made a part hereof. Said statement or invoice shows the goods ordered and received, the prices charged therefor and the dates said indebtedness was incurred by this defendant.

WHEREFORE, plaintiff prays judgment against defendant in the sum of $ 68.90 with interest thereon from September 1926 until paid; for its costs herein and all further relief to which it may appear entitled.
