

Mercer Quarterly Court.

J. L. Gritton,

Plaintiff,

v.

Judgment.

William Brown, &c.,

Defendants.

It appearing to the Court that the defendants, William Brown and Raymond Brown, have been duly summoned herein and have failed to answer, it is ordered and adjudged that the plaintiff recover of said defendants, William and Raymond Brown, thirty two dollars with 6% interest thereon from March 1st, 1922, until paid and his costs herein expended.

It is further adjudged that the attachment and the grounds thereof be and they are hereby sustained and this cause is continued for answer of the garnishee's summoned herein.

The above judgment is satisfied, having been paid in full by the Burley Cooperative Assn
June 8th 1922 J. P. Miller