

MERCER QUARTERLY COURT.

J. L. Gritton,

Plaintiff.

vs-

ANSWER OF THE
AMERICAN ALLIANCE INSURANCE COMPANY OF NEW YORK.

D. M. Brown.

Defendant.

1.

The American Alliance Insurance Company of New York, denies that it is indebted to the plaintiff or that the plaintiff has any claim whatsoever against said defendant, American Alliance Insurance Company of New York.

2.

The American Alliance Insurance Company of New York, for answer to the order of attachment issued herein, states that it is indebted to the defendant, D. M. Brown, but that the amount of said indebtedness is not as yet ready to be paid. The American Alliance Insurance Company, garnishee, further states that when said amount of indebtedness to the defendant, D. M. Brown, is ready to be paid, it will hold the same subject to the order of this Court, in accordance with the order of attachment issued herein and duly served upon said American Alliance Insurance Company of New York.

American Alliance Insurance Company
