

Mercer Quarterly Court

Berry Lawson,

Plaintiff

v.

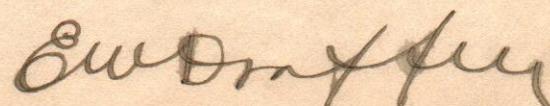

Roy Carey

defendant

Plaintiff, Berry Lawson, states that the defendant Roy Carey is indebted to him in the amount of $30.48, the same being for groceries, foodstuff and other provisions furnished the said defendant at his special instance and request for which the defendant promised to pay the amount as above stated.

Plaintiff states that the account is now due and wholly unpaid and the demand has been made defendant has failed and refused and still fails and refuses to pay said account or any part thereof.

Wherefore, Plaintiff asks for judgment against the said defendant for the sum of $30. 48 for costs of this suit and for all other relief to which he may appear to be entitled.
