

C L McDonley,
to Homer Yates Dr

1925 To repairs on wagon, broken while in use by McDonley,

$17.50

Homer Yates

vs

C L McDonley

Mercer Quarterly Court

Pliff

Deft

The affiant Homer Yates states that his claim against the defendant C L McDonley is just and that he ought to recover the sum of $17.50, no part of which has ever been paid and that the said McDonley is indebted to him in said sum for necessary repairs on wagon owned by said Yates and in use by the said McDonley under a contract and agreement that he was to pay for said repairs. He says that the said McDonley has no property in this State subject to execution and that his ~~claim~~ demand will be endangered by delay in obtaining judgment and a return of no property found.
