

TO SHERIFF OF MERCER COUNTY:

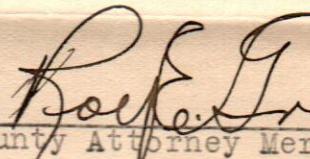

Harrodsburg, Kentucky.,
January 6th 1933.

To Nally & Mudd,
Harrodsburg, Ky.

Gentlemen:

Complaint is made of your working men and operating trucks and the hauling and spreading of rock on the Harrodsburg & Mackville pike in Mercer County Kentucky on Sunday. While I regret it--it becomes my duty in view of the several complaints made to request you not to operate on Sunday or Sundays and to warn you that failure to comply with this request will result in a prosecution against each of you for a violation of the law.

This January 6th 1933.

Robert Graves
County Attorney Mercer County.
