

THE HOUSE OF HAZARDS

By MAC ARTHUR

TWENTY - ONE YEARS AGO
FROM THE HERALD FILES

June 18, 1915

"Wildwood," the beautiful Goddard homestead, was sold Wednesday and the 325 acres were bought by Glave Goddard at $134 an acre. The W. W. Stephenson farm of 445 acres near Burgin was sold in several tracts for a total of $42,040.

A bad wreck occurred at Gravel Switch Sunday when a box car on a train of fifty cars broke loose and all piled up on each other. A Negro hobo was killed and one of the firemen injured when he jumped for his life. Most of the cars contained coal.

Dr. F. F. Brown, Baptist minister, made a brilliant address Friday night to the graduates of the Harrodsburg high school. Twelve graduates received diplomas from Prof. J. G. Prather.

H. Lay had a narrow escape from drowning in Bailey's Creek, below Cornishville, Friday. The stream was swollen by a cloud burst and Mr. Lay on horseback, attempted to find the ford and guide the Gardners across with their horse and buggy. Mr. Lay's horse stepped off the end of the ford and Mr. Gardner, seeing this stopped and Mrs. Gardner managed to climb to a stone wall, but the water soon rose over her shoe tops. Lay's horse finally struggled out of the water and he rode to the fence and rescued Mrs. Gardner. Mr. Gardner, who had been injured had to remain in the buggy, but was finally pulled out by people in the neighborhood.

The children played to standing room only, when they presented the Hospital benefit, and turned $7 over to the fund above expenses.

Deaths—Mr. S. R. Teater died at Bohon Sunday afternoon. Mrs. Elizabeth Baker, 45, died Tuesday. John D. Crawford, 77, died Monday at Perryville.

ZIPPING A SNAKE

Fellers, here comes a true snake story. A few days ago Ferrell McNeill of the Boaz section was at work on the Bob Mansker farm in Boaz bottom. He wore loose overalls with a zipper front. He encountered a black racer snake more than five feet long and the snake ran up his leg and wrapped itself around the calf of it. Ferrell lit out to running, ran a mile and a half to his home and in the excitement he pulled the zipper on his front and the snake's head appeared, and the youth seized the reptile around the neck and when he reached the house both Ferrell's and the snake's tongue were hanging out.—Mayfield Messenger.

MAKE IT SNAPPY

City Editor Joe Dorris has posted a conspicuous sign over his desk that contains some poetry and a good deal more truth. Whether he wrote it or not is not material, it seems to be worth being put in this column where everybody will see it. So here it is:

Life is short, a fleeting vapor,
Why should you fill your whole darn paper?
With a tale which at a pinch
Could be crowded into an inch?
Boil it down until it simmers,
Polish it until it glimmers;
When you have a thing to say,
Say it—don't take half a day.

BRUCE BARTON Says:

PAS

Change Scenes, Sucker-Sore luncheon engagement was a few minutes late. "You will have to excuse me," he said, "This is my thirtieth birthday. I have always said that when I was thirty-five I would have a complete physical examination. I have been at it more than two hours.

Thirty-five is one of the biggest milestones. I remember a series of articles our old friend John Sidall published years ago. He had Irvin Cobb write on Looking Both Ways at Forty. I wrote on How It Feels to be Thirty-Two. Ring Lardner did the best piece in the series and called it General Symptoms of Being Thirty-Five. Though I cannot quote them verbatim, some of Ring's sentences linger in my memory. For example:

"The subject is awakened in the middle of the night by the ringing of a fire bell. Sniffs but does not smell smoke. Figures it is not his house and rolls over and goes to sleep."

Also, "Our patient buys a copy of a national magazine and reads the first installment of an exciting new serial story. At the end of the installment the villain holds the beautiful heroine in his horrid grasp. Patient forgets to buy the next month's issue."

Another big milestone comes at forty-five. No young person reads the obituary page of a newspaper. But along about forty-five a man suddenly discovers that page, and for the rest of his life is a regular consumer of it.

On my thirty-fifth birthday I took out some additional life insurance, and was pleased to have the doctors render such a good report. I cast up my accounts, and found a bit of a balance in the bank. I said to myself: "Now I am pretty well fixed. I suppose never to be worried or hurried again." All of my really serious worries have happened since that date.

PADUCAH FIRST KY. CITY TO INSTALL PARKING METERS

Paducah became the first municipality in Kentucky to give actual trial of timing meters to regulate parking of vehicles in downtown streets, with the placing of 496 of the devices in service last week.

Fifteen minutes after the meters officially began collection of five cents per hour each from parking motorists, A. E. Boyd, Jr., law student, parked his motor without paying the fee and gave himself up to City Judge Rex Cornelison.

Boyd said he wished to be the spearhead of a case to test the legality of the meter installation. His case was set for hearing Thursday morning.

BOURBON HOME BURNED AT LOSS OF $15,000

Flames destroyed the country home of Judge and Mrs. W. B. Ardery, last week about one o'clock, entailing a loss of about $15,000, most of which was covered by insurance. The flames of unknown origin were detected by the colored farm hand.

The home, one of the handsomest in the county, had been abandoned since morning, except for two servants. Judge Ardery was holding court at Georgetown, and Mrs. Ardery was attending a meeting at the Paris Christian church when notified that her home was in flames. The structure was almost an exact replica of the home which burned about seven years ago. At that time none of the contents were saved. The walls of native stone were used again for the home which burned.—Paris Kentuckian.

"JIM," BOURBON'S BIG STEER, LEAVES FOR TEXAS SHOW

R. G. Young, of Paris, left Thursday morning for Fort Worth, Texas, where he will show "Jim," the largest steer in the world, at the Texas Frontier Centennial.

Mr. Young recently bought this full blooded shorthorn steer from Jack Howard, Bourbon county. The steer was discovered about two years ago to be unusually large and at that time he weighed 3,861 pounds. It is thought that at the present he will weigh more than 4,000 pounds. He stands six feet, two inches, is six years old and raised on the farm of Jack Howard a few miles from Paris.

The steer was featured by Ripley in his "Believe It or Not" cartoon shortly after it was found that the animal was so huge. The steer will be shipped the first of the week.

Pretty Good Country

(Paris Kentuckian)

After all, we Americans have some comfort. We can find fault with the corner policeman, the governor, or even the President, and not be put in jail for it. We can be as bitter as we wish and if we stick to the truth we are safe.

We have no hereditary aristocracy in the United States; no military caste; no huge land-owning class; no impassable social barriers; we may worship as we please—or not at all; along our northern border is a nation of ten million people who are good neighbors with whom we have been at peace for a hundred years; we send our children to free schools, the best in the world; we buy and read what newspapers, magazines or books we wish and whether or not we agree we know that publication is not coerced.

We hold more life insurance, own more automobiles and enjoy more radios than any other people anywhere. We are leading the world in scientific research and no country even approaches the living standards of America.

Summer is here, delightful weather, the great outdoors is at its best. The birds are singing, and all outdoors calls you, so really there is nothing basically wrong.
