ALL GOOD ARTICLES

Harrodsburg, Ky. June 14, 1936

Mr. D. M. Hutton, Harrodsburg, Ky. Dear Mr. Hutton:

I thank you so much for your nice compliment on my work of the articles I entered in Onward Kentucky Exposition. I appreciate your thoughtfulness the more from the fact mine apparently received little official recognition. It was nice of you to offer this encouragement and I hope my articles merited all the praise you lavished on them. I think the Onward Kentucky Movement splendid and deserving success. I hope it comes through. I was sorry I did not get to attend the Exposition.

My articles—I was aware they were unsuited for souvenir and tourist trade but thought they might have some commercial possibilities. They are all my own design and invention save the fly trap and I might well claim invention of it since I have refined it from originally a banana crate, covered with screening and a cone to a pretty nifty looking article. When placed out of doors where flies are numerous it will catch more flies in a week than can be killed indoors all summer by fly paper and spray combined.

The chicken catcher I made purposely for a model to seek a patent and being in doubt of whether it would have extensive possibilities as a commercial article and being financially unable too, to proceed, I abandoned it. I believe a manufacturer could make it mightily cheap and even a little fellow might by having special tools made at a foundry, but I think the only money in it would be to patent and sell it to a manufacturer.

The milkster stool is indeed a handy article and deserves a place on every farm. It is perfectly designed for the purpose intended. The handy handle permits it being carried from cow to cow easily and hung out of the way when not in use. I believe a lot of them could be sold at, say about $1.00 or maybe less. The finish was only a dab of roofing tar or cement put on and then rubbed off at once. I hope we finally get electricity on the farm. Please keep up your discussion on the subject. Somebody's leadership is the only means of ever accomplishing the good work. Thank you.

Your friend, Worley Robinson.

George W. Edwards In Action

The other day the Herald's photographer caught George W. Edwards at his cashiers desk in the State Bank & Trust Co. We esteem Mr. Edwards as one of Harrodsburg's most progressive men—always responsive to every civic call. He has been an active leader here in financial matters since 1906. He has successfully directed the Bank through fat years to meet the lean years, and is proud of its past record and present splendid condition.

PIONEER PARK NOTES

(H. C. Wood, Curator)

We want news you can't suppress, Or if printed seek redress— News is the keynote to success, Of our fine Kentucky Press.

Mrs. Charles Riker had as her guest to the Park, Mrs. Halbert Payne, of Washington, D. C.

A Mrs. Miller, who was a Miss Elizabeth Lee, said her great-grandmother was said to have been the first girl born in Old Fort Harrod.

Mrs. J. D. Figgins, wife of Prof. Figgins, and Marley Goettach, his assistant, were visitors of the Park on Saturday. Prof. Figgins has been appointed director of the Great Historical Museum to be built by Mr. Bernheim, of Kentucky in remembrance of Mrs. Amanda Bernheim. This building is to be on the Bird Reservation near Louisville, Ky. Prof. Figgins was a former director of the Colorado Museum of Natural History at Denver, Col.

The Curator is indebted to Lt. Col. Meriwether Smith for a photostat copy of the diary that was found on the body of John Wilkes Booth, after he was shot.

It is a most interesting document, and should put to an end all claims that Booth escaped his pursuers and lived for many years. On the fateful eve of April 14, 1864, Booth writes: "Until today nothing was ever thought of sacrificing to our country's wrong. For six months we had worked to capture. But our cause being almost lost, something decisive must be done." "I struck boldly and not as the papers say, I rode sixty miles that night with the bones of my leg tearing the flesh at every jump."

After shooting Lincoln, I think Booth leaped from the box to the stage and caught his spur on the flag decorations below the box, which threw him to the floor of the stage breaking his leg.

Along with the diary were several pictures of beautiful actresses of that day, Booth, himself, was said to have been the handsomest actor on the American stage.

Mrs. Thomas E. Shea, of Long Island, N. Y., and her three children were recent visitors at the Park as guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Brown.

Mrs. Belle Noble Dean, of Indiana, a niece of Mrs. Sam Grubbs, was a visitor of the Park as the guest of Mrs. Lafon Riker.

Four large buses of the Cincinnati Department of Transportation and containing a party of ladies from the Southern Railway Business Woman's Association, were visitors of the Park last Sunday.

Hon. Bailey P. Wootton and Mrs. Wootton, Frankfort, visited the Park Wednesday.

STOCKING RUNS
If you get more than your share of runs in your stockings, check your garters. Short ones cause breaks in the thread and runs follow. Adjust your garters while seated, while the stocking top is folded down, the weight evenly distributed and the seams straight.

To avoid runs starting from the toe of the stocking, get stockings which are long enough in the foot, keep the nails well trimmed, and pull the stocking forward before putting on your shoe.

BOYLE'S WOMAN SHERIFF PLEA DENIED BY COURTS
The right of Mrs. Mary F. Overstreet, sheriff of Boyle county, to collect the legal 10 per cent commission on the $5,000 of 1935-1936 tax assessments collected by her office was denied Friday by the court of appeals in an opinion affirming judgment of Boyle circuit court.

TALKS WITH HUSBAND 7,000 MILES FROM SOMERSET

The longest telephone call, distance considered, received by a Somerset person, was effected Tuesday morning when Mrs. Lawrence Brown talked with her husband, located at Rio de Janeiro, Brazil. Their daughter, Mary, underwent an operation for appendicitis at the Somerset General Hospital Sunday and Mrs. Brown was advised by cable of the operation. Mrs. Brown was able to distinctly hear the voice of Mr. Brown, who was more than 7,000 miles distant, and assure him that Mary was making a nice recovery.—Somerset Journal.

TRAVEL TIPS

If you are in a hotel, the home of a friend, camping, or touring, and need extra coat hangers, you may improvise these by rolling a newspaper and tying a string about the middle of the roll. Make a loop from the ends of string, by which to loop it over the hook, and fit the garment over the paper roll as over the regular hanger. A waste paper basket may be devised for the small waste accumulations one always wishes to discard, by rolling a folded newspaper into a cornucopia. It may be pinned to a curtain or any hanging object until you are through with it.

SOMERSET FLORAL COMPANY SHIPS 9,000 DELPHINIUM

The Somerset Floral Company already has shipped 9,000 delphinium plants to Georgia and Alabama this season, Allen Burke, manager, stated last week, and still has a large number of orders to be filled when the next crop of plants becomes mature about July 20. The florists are doing a large volume of business daily. Most of the delphinium plants provide blossoms for June weddings, Mr. Burke said.—Somerset Journal.

A group of distinguished economists is convinced that we shouldn't buy any more silver. Gosh, we wish our friends among the June brides were, too.—(Boston Herald.)

CHILDREN TAKE FLOWERS TO PRISONERS IN JAIL

The Loyal Temperance Legion, a children's organization of the Harrodsburg W. C. T. U., observed the annual Flower Mission Day Sunday by visiting the jail in the afternoon and presenting each prisoner with a flower to which was attached a verse of Scripture. There were 20 inmates of the jail. The visit of the Loyal Legion was in charge of its president, Mildred Gortney, and its sponsor, Mrs. I. C. James, Sr.

The message was given by Rev. G. R. Tomlin, of the Methodist church, at the Sunday afternoon service. These services are under the flower mission branch of the W. C. T. U.

TEACHER DENIED CLAIM IN PAJAMA BLAZE

The Georgia Supreme Court ruled Saturday that a school teacher who accidentally sets his pajamas afire while grading examination papers cannot be legally regarded as "injured in the course of his employment."

C. D. Sanders, principal of the Hart County Eagle Grove School, filed a claim before the State Workmen's Compensation Board for burns suffered on one foot. He said his pajamas were ignited when he started a fire during the paper-grading process.

The board denied the claim. The court upheld the board.

Mystery Of World War Seems Solved

End of Britain's Earl Kitchener Told In Copyright Story By German World War Spy.

In a copyright story from Nice, France, published in the New York Times, a German now residing on the Riviera has cleared up the mystery of the death of Earl Kitchener during the World War. It will be recalled that Lord Kitchener sailed from England on the British cruiser Hampshire for a trip to Russia by way of the Arctic, and that the vessel with everybody on board was lost. It never was heard from after it left port and sailed toward the Arctic ocean.

Ernest Carl was a German war spy. He operated in England. The Imperial German government, he said in an interview, ordered him "to do away with" Lord Kitchener. To reach Lord Kitchener and learn of his plans, Carl pretended to be a seller of antique furniture and engravings. These constituted one of the earl's hobbies. The antiques were supposed to be in Paris. Lord Kitchener told Carl to "hurry them over," as he was going to Russia. It was "child's play," said Carl, to learn the name of the ship on which Lord Kitchener was going to Russia. Two of his confederates, working under his orders, placed time bombs on the Hampshire. The vessel was blown off the Orkney islands, and the hero of Khartoum went to his death with the others. Until now the loss of the Hampshire had been an unexplained mystery of the World War. Carl's story seems plausible. It probably is true.

Edith—Say, mamma, I want to ask you a question.

Mamma—What is it now, Edith? Edith—When the first man started to write the word "psalm" with a "p," why didn't he scratch it out and start over again?—(Flotsam.)

Don't Pay OVER 49c FOR MEDICINE

Friday and Saturday

Sufferers from Stomach Trouble, Weak Kidneys, Lazy Liver, Nervousness and General Run-down Conditions, etc.

Every person that suffers can have a full sized bottle of the world's newest medicine to try for 49c. Simply read the offer below. Do this in your own interest.

This new and scientific medicine known as DR. KERR'S INNER-AIDE has helped 85 (or 90) per cent of the people that have taken it. Therefore we offer you a full sized $1.25 bottle because we believe that the people who are benefited will keep on using it.

What It Is!

INNER-AIDE is a new and advanced medical compound of 21 of the finest medicinal herbs, and not one habit forming drug. It is taken after meals and mixes with the food in the stomach, thus throwing off the poisons that foster Stomach Troubles and permitting the Kidneys and Liver to function properly. It acts within ten minutes to stop gas and pains, sourness, bloating and belching. It will not gripe or nauseate you like ordinary Liver Medicine. It will work the bile from the Liver as black as ink. At the same time INNER-AIDE drives the poisons from the Kidneys and relieves backache, bladder weakness and irritation. Relieves children from bed wetting in a few days. Strengthens the nerves by natural means.

What It Will Do!

INNER-AIDE will cleanse your Bowels (gradually—not drastic or severe) as they were never cleansed before. It will bring out awful gases and impurities (frequently from the first dose) which may have been inside of you a long time, causing you many days of misery with headaches, dizzy spells, skin eruptions and lazy, drowsy, tired feeling.

INNER-AIDE will relieve acid conditions and make the digestive organs sweet and clean and give complete relief from indigestion, bloating, sour stomach, shortness of breath and dyspepsia.

IT WILL give you the greatest appetite you ever had in your life.

INNER-AIDE will act as a diuretic to sluggish Kidneys and flush out quantities of impurities that may have become dammed up inside, causing BACKACHE, SHARP PAINS and RISING AT NIGHT.

It will make your liver more active; will clear away old bile deposits, thus relieving spells of biliousness and sick headaches.

Relieve those with rheumatism and neuritis, giving quick relief from pain.

INNER-AIDE will make your Stomach, Liver, Kidneys and Bowels more active, build you up in general and make you LOOK, ACT and FEEL like a DIFFERENT MAN OR WOMAN, years younger than your real age.

Now whether INNER-AIDE will help you as it has thousands of others—whether it will end your suffering in a day or week—remains to be seen. But in light of what it has done for others, it is surely a mistake not to try it, for 49c, only a fraction of what it is worth. This introductory offer is good FRIDAY and SATURDAY only, so act at once. Do this in fairness to yourself and family.
