McMurphy-Edelen

Marriage

Miss Archie McMurphy and Mr. Leonard Edelen were united in marriage Saturday morning with the bride's pastor, Dr. John W. Carpenter, as the officiating minister. The ceremony was solemnized at 7:30 o'clock at the United Presbyterian Manse with the bride wearing a becoming blue dress with pink leghorn hat and a shoulder bouquet of pink roses and baby's breath. Those who were present to witness the wedding were Mrs. Carpenter, Mrs. G. F. McMurphy, the bride's mother, her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. James Page Spilman, the bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Alan Edelen and his sisters, Misses Mary and Margaret Edelen, and Mrs. J. F. Redford. His father was ill and unable to attend the wedding.

Mrs. Edelen is a charming and lovely young girl who after graduating from the Harrodsburg high school received a diploma as a graduate nurse from St. Joseph's Infirmary, Lexington. She has practiced her profession in private cases as well as public health nurse organizations in several counties. She is the younger daughter of Mrs. G. F. McMurphy, and the late Mr. McMurphy. Mr. Edelen is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Alan Edelen and a popular young man who is local agent for an Eastern Kentucky coal company.

Immediately after the wedding Mr. and Mrs. Edelen left on a motor trip several days, from which they have returned and are now at home at the apartment of the bride's mother, on Beaumont avenue.

Harmon-Brown

Marriage

The wedding of Miss Margaret Pauline Harmon, of Salvisa, and Mr. Irnel Nelson Brown, of McAfee and Salvisa, took place at 9:45 a.m. Thursday morning, June 11th, at the Central Christian Church of Lexington. They were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Harmon, of Irvine, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Harmon, of Harrodsburg, and Mr. William Davis Harmon, of Salvisa.

The ceremony was performed in the church parlors. The bride was lovely in a navy chiffon suit, with navy and white accessories and a corsage of pink roses. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Harmon, of Salvisa, a graduate of the Salvisa High School, and during the spring has been employed at the District WPA office in Danville.

Mr. Brown is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Rabe Brown, of McAfee, a graduate of the University of Kentucky, class of 1933. Since 1934 he has been a member of the faculty of the Salvisa high school, of which he is now principal.

Mr. and Mrs. Brown left immediately on a motor trip to West Virginia, Virginia, the Atlantic Coast and Washington, D. C. Upon their return they will be at home to their many friends at McAfee.

Boone-Kidd

Marriage

The following of interest here is from the Winchester-Sun. The bride's mother was formerly Miss Mildred Phillips, Harrodsburg. She is a niece of Fire Chief K. B. Phillips.

A wedding which came as a surprise to their friends was that of Miss Dorothy Boone, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Levi Boone of Clark county to Mr. Clarence LeBus Kidd, son of Mr. A. S. Kidd, also of this county, on Sunday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock with the Rev. Mr. Newman officiating.

The ceremony was at the Bethlehem church in the county with the following persons as attendants: Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Gordon Robinson, Mrs. William Allenton, Winchester, and Miss Arden Kidd, a niece of the groom, Washington, D. C.

The bride, who is a petite blonde, was becomingly attired in a blue print chiffon ensemble with white accessories. Mrs. Kidd graduated from the Clark county high school in the class of 1936.

Mr. Kidd, a graduate of the county high school, is engaged in farming on the Ecton road where the young couple will make their home following the wedding trip.

ROOM DRAPERIES

Draperies that match the wall will make a room look more spacious. One of the most interesting ways of giving ivory walls a "difference" is by using draperies of just the same shade of ivory. A rather formal but stunning effect can be achieved with deep beige walls and deep beige draperies hung straight. The new vogue for grey can also be handled this way, but be sure you have plenty of clean contrasting colors in the room so that the effect won't be gloomy. Grey is smart and cheerful if it is used with fresh, bright, colors.

BEST STOCKING SHADES

For women who are uncertain about stocking shades, one firm reports their four best sellers among fashionable women as follows: Marimba, a light tropical brown for browns, yellow greens, tweeds and black; toasty, a sun-toned beige for beiges, greens, British tan, blues, pastels, vivid hues, white or black; coppermint, a burnished copper to wear with copper shades, greens, grays, havy and black, and barcelona, a dark neutral beige for wines, purples, blues, cloudy pastels and black.
